Susan Urquhart-Brown, author of The Accidental Entrepreneur, is a business coach, who offers individual coaching and Success Teams for entrepreneurs who want to attract their ideal clients and build a profitable business. The Accidental Entrepreneur is an upbeat, encouraging no-nonsense guidebook that takes the mystery out of running a successful business for both newly minted and experienced entrepreneurs. It is available at www.Amazon.com and as an Ebook at www.careersteps123.com.

Susan says, "I see so many entrepreneurs stall because they aren't clear about their individual strengths and talents. Do you know what your clients really want...and why you're the best person to give it to them? Have you ever noticed that when your intention is clear, opportunities seem to appear magically?"

Susan helps you identify your unique niche----and tailor your passion, talents and marketing strategies to suit your services.

Watch your business soar as we:

-  Identify your unique assets
-  Design a game plan with built in accountability
-  Set and implement "Magic" goals
-  Create a strategic business plan

No matter what phase of development your business is experiencing, your marketing should be working at least as hard as you are. I specialize in facilitating this work, acting as the catalyst that helps you develop goals that fit with your big picture intentions...and accomplish them with greater ease.
